Jacqui Bell

Jacqui was appointed to the role of Chief Exec of NAVO in October 2006 from Notts County Council, where she had worked in various guises since 2000.

Jacqui's background is partnership development and support – from within both public and voluntary sectors, in both rural and urban areas.

With a background in funding advice and EU Fund Management, Jacqui's strengths developed in the areas of community participation during her time managing a European Community Initiative to establish community trusts across the North Pennine and North Yorkshire in the late 1990's.

Following a short spell setting up the regeneration team at Nott's Rural Community Council, Jacqui joined the county council in Notts. As part of its Local Area teams. Covering the most rural parts of Nott's, Jacqui led Local Area Forum's in Bassetlaw, Warsop and Rushcliffe, and acted as the Bassetlaw Area Co-ordinator for county.

Telephone 01623 651170 & Fax 01623 649586 e-mail: info@navo.org.uk

Registered Charity 1102490

Having successfully helped develop the county councils countywide Community Strategy, Jacqui joined Newark & Sherwood LSP to help it review its community plan and developed its second Community Plan concentrating on Building Local Aspirations and Improving Accessibility.

Jacqui's values are very much in tune with NAVO's role to build productive partnerships with strong representation from local people and organisations – involving people in the decisions that effect their lives, ensure better quality decisions are made in the future. Jacqui is committed to help individuals and organisations work together effectively – building a culture of trust, openness and creativity can transform our ability to work with and through others... together we can make a difference!
